I can certainly sit in for Dave. Will the call in # be the same as the last call?

Thank you,

Thanks Bob.

On a slightly different topic, I can't recall if (or what) we decided in terms of our next technical group discussion, scheduled for tomorrow at 8 AM. I believe that Dave will be back in the office next week, so should we postpone the call until August 4, or just go ahead with the call and hope that Matt can sit in for Dave? If we opt to hold the call tomorrow, does anyone have agenda items?

Thanks!

All,

My task order has been funded and we expect to be onsite to install the two wells, develop, and sample starting Aug. 3.

If the schedule changes I will let you know.
